TO LEARN O

MANY THINGS...

IS A GOAL

Upper left: It's time for school again! Martin Duffey, Jean Hetzler, and John Clark come back to school just after the first bell has rung at noon.

Lower center: A usual Saturday night crowd in the canteen game room — playing checkers and cards, and reading magazines.

Lower right: Geometry class; just leaving—? or just arriving—?

NORTHWHILE TO ACHIEVE . . .

Lower right: This is familiar sight with Joan saying, "Do you have a card?" Notice the money in the box; it looks as if she's caught quite a few.

Lower middle: John Marsh, who now attends Noble, gives the impression that he might be vicious.

Upper left: The busses from the south and east sides of town unload Jon Harris and Arthur Unger, and Wayne Whitehead, at noon.

Left, center: Bill Schultz welcomes in the new year as president of the Canteen, as Kelson Slayman ends the old year in a jovial mood.

FOR BOTH

Above, left: Janet Sue Hippensteel decides to put an extra session or two in at the library in preparation for exams.

Above, right: That bandage on Marna Mullen-dore's leg covers a mighty sore spot! Other-wise she would never have missed joining the other cheerleaders at that football game.

Bottom, right: Three freshmen, Steve, Thom, and David (The Monster) come up the front walk, ready for anything but school.

HAPPINESS AND SUCCESS

VARIOUS INGREDIENTS

The year was not all work.
We enjoyed basketball and convocations as well as special events, such as the Latin Club's Roman banquet. Homecoming queens added sparkle to the Hartford City football game.

3rd row: Jerry Snowberger, Buster Hamilton, Tom Webb, Richard Powell, Jim Kneller, Miss Mills, James Brady, Bill McDaniel, Jerry Dunsizer, Jerry Light, Jim Ballard.

GOWN OF GLORY is the story of a preacher's family in a small town and of their dreams that some day the Rev. Lyall will become pastor of a large city church.

DRAMATICS

Dramatics promotes interest for the stage by giving students the opportunity for acting and working on set decorations, costumes, and make-up.

1st row: Dora Bell, June McWhirt, Carol Snowberger, Alice Enyeart, Judy Davis, Mary Day.

3rd row: Jim Kneller, Bill McDaniel, Jerry Light, Buster Hamilton, Miss Mills, Butch Ross, Jerry Snowberger, Jim Ballard, Jerry Dunsizer.

Top: Miss Mills receives a token of appreciation from the cast of GOWN OF GLORY.

Lower left: Mrs. Jones is a big help backstage when it comes to make-up.

Lower right: Jim Ballard and Jane Blair watch Sharon Johnson add the final touches before going on stage.

THESPIANS

Students who have earned points by taking part in plays, helping on stage sets, or participating on committees are awarded membership in the National Thespian Society.

1st row: Carolyn Touscany, Marilyn Hauptert, Alice Enyeart, Miss Mills, Ramona Smith, Natalie Smith, Jean Hetzler.

ORANGE AND BLACK

The ORANGE and BLACK, published every three weeks during the school year, is the official journal of Wabash High School. Each student and teacher in the school is given a free copy of each edition. Financing of the ORANGE and BLACK is a problem because the printing has to be purchased. Besides soliciting advertising for the paper, a basketball schedule book, and basketball programs, the O&B sponsors dances during the year to help defray expenses.

The WHS chapter of Quill and Scroll, an international honor society for high school journalists, was established here on November 21, 1941. Quill and Scroll was founded in 1926 at Iowa University to give recognition and encouragement to high school students who are interested in journalism.

The following qualifications for membership are required: the student must be of junior or senior classification; he must be in the upper third of his class in general scholastic standing; he may be elected from newspaper, yearbook, magazine and handbook staffs, and must have done superior work in writing, editing, or business management; he must be recommended by the school principal or publications adviser and approved by the executive secretary of the national society.

QUILL AND SCROLL

Quill and Scroll has a membership of six at WHS. They are, from left to right, Fred Squires, Dick Wolpert, Ramona Smith, Jim Armstrong, Linda Gray, and Shirley Baxter.

Fred was editor of the O&B his senior year, news editor in 1953, on its sport staff his sophomore year, and is a copy editor of the Sycamore. Dick worked with the paper for two years filling jobs of reporter, circulation editor, and associate editor; Dick assisted as Athletics Editor of the Sycamore. Ramona gained her membership in Quill and Scroll as co-editor of the Sycamore. The position of sports editor of the O&B was filled by Jim Armstrong for three semesters. He is also one of the sports editors for the Sycamore. Last year Linda was feature editor of the O&B. She is Circulation editor of the Sycamore. The only junior in Quill and Scroll is Shirley; she has been on the staff since her freshman year. Shirley was feature editor of this year's paper.

RAMONA SMITH

PETE JONES

Ramona Smith and Pete Jones served as co-editors for the 1954 Sycamore. Ramona was a member of Quill and Scroll and Tri-Hi-Y vice-president during the year. Pete served as manager of radio station WSKS and was sports editor of the Orange and Black.

Ronald Eltzroth, Pete Jones, Sally Baker, Ramona Smith, Carol Zimmer, Linda Gray and Fred Squires get the subscription drive under-way.

Left: If it weren't for the mathematical setting, one might think that Dwayne's pose would make him part of a chorus line - - the Rockettes, maybe?

Middle: The deal looks a little shady from this angle.

Right: "On your mark! Get set! Go!" Natalie is in a hurry either to leave chemistry class or to catch Gilbert before he leaves.

Diane Vice's car gets close scrutiny from a group of seniors; too bad W.H.S. doesn't offer a course in Model "A" repair and maintenance.

Left: This is a familiar sight with "Butch" Ross, president of Student Council, introducing a speaker for convocation.

Middle: Another usual sight: a group of senior girls (Nancy Potterf, Joyce Durnbaugh, and Ramona Smith) playing cards at the Canteen. Notice that all hands are above the table.

Right: This familiar picture shows the only force (in the person of Sandra Hipsher) capable of keeping Chuck Shroyer in the room after the bell rings.
